Team flags as they hang over Victor's presses.

And, also The Birds (like in Ravens and Orioles) and The Pack (like in a frozen tundra).

Starting with the purchase of their first web offset press, Victor Graphics (a Baltimore based book printer) has had the manufacturer paint the press the color of an athletic team.

The appropriate team flag was then hung over the press and the team logo affixed to its side.

Victor's latest addition, a Timson T48A Press from England, honors the University of Maryland Terrapins. The University's mascot was on hand to help celebrate the press's start-up in late December.
